Hi Lee,

As I mentioned, I Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP) It sounds like we'll link up by phone shortly, and I can also talk while I'm driving. Meanwhile, here are my initial thoughts – see in red added to David's comments. I'm copying Tim since the second comment relates to a point that Tim has made.

Thanks for your comments, David. And thank you for sending them despite the late hour. I will get back to you with answers to your questions after I get in the office and coordinate with the team on revisions.

David,

Attached is the current draft of the options paper for the principals briefing on Wed, Nov 14th. It presents two options and discusses how decisions based on those options could be made in Maine, Idaho and Washington. It also presents legal considerations for each option. The paper is the work of the full team in OGC, Region 1 and Region 10.

Your review and any suggestions for revisions and on how best to present these issues would be much appreciated. I and others will be in the office tomorrow if you want to discuss or pass on comments. If you can't get to it tomorrow, if you are able to review it over the weekend, just send your comments at that time. The team will be meeting with Deborah Nagle on Tuesday at 11am to prepare for the Wednesday briefing. OST will submit the paper to their front office by 3pm on Tuesday.

Thanks again.

Lee
